

GRAMMAR | Some, any, every, no

1 Something to do

Luke, Dave and Jay are talking about what they could do. Complete their conversation with the correct words.

something

nothing

anywhere

anything

somewhere

everything

Luke: Maybe there's something interesting on TV.

Jay: No, there's _____ good on TV this afternoon.

Dave: Then let's go _____ nice.

Jay: Do you know _____ nice that's free?

Dave: Yes, Mudchute Farm. That doesn't cost _____.

Luke: Great idea! It's fun and _____ is free there.

2 Mouse!?

Complete the words with some, any, every or no.

Yesterday Jay and Amir were sitting in a café when some thing strange happened. Suddenly _____ body shouted, "Mouse!" It was so loud that _____ body heard. "Where?" shouted one of the girls at the next table.

"Did _____ body _____ see where it went?" But _____ body answered because _____ body knew.

So _____ body in the café started to look for it. First they looked under the tables, but there was _____ thing there. Then they looked under the cupboards, but there wasn't _____ thing there. They looked _____ where, but it was _____ where. Then the girls started to laugh and the owner got angry. "Listen, _____ body," he said in a loud voice. "If _____ body shouts 'Mouse!' again, there's going to be big trouble!" So after that _____ body was quiet and _____ body said _____ thing at all.