

Reflexive pronouns (tandem exercise)

- Fill in the correct personal pronoun or reflexive pronoun or no pronoun at all.
- Have a look at the example in the first line of the table to understand how to do the exercise.

Reflexive pronoun, personal pronouns or no pronoun at all?		Reflexive pronoun, personal pronouns or no pronoun at all?
Example Last week, Tom talked to ~ about the soccer game.		Example Last week, Tom talked to me about the soccer game.
1	When grandpa is alone he sometimes talks to ~.	1	When grandpa is alone he sometimes talks to himself .
2	When I won the first prize in the table tennis match, a lot of people talked to ~.	2	When I won the first prize in the table tennis match, a lot of people talked to me .
3	On Saturday, Sarah and I met ~ at the cinema to watch a movie.	3	On Saturday, Sarah and I met at the cinema to watch a movie.
4	All the kids in our class made ~ funny hats for the party.	4	All the kids in our class made themselves funny hats for the party.
5	Last weekend, I bought ~ the first ice-cream this year.	5	Last weekend, I bought myself the first ice-cream this year.
6	Do you want me to help you with your test? — No, I can do it ~.	6	Do you want me to help you with your test? — No, I can do it myself .
7	I really enjoyed myself at the party.	7	I really enjoyed ~ at the party.
8	When we put on those funny hats and looked in the mirror, we had to laugh at ourselves .	8	When we put on those funny hats and looked in the mirror, we had to laugh at ~.
9	I can show you how to make a cake. — No! I can do it myself .	9	I can show you how to make a cake. — No! I can do it ~.
10	Peter thinks that many people want to listen to him when he sings.	10	Peter thinks that many people want to listen to ~ when he sings.
11	Peter really likes to listen to himself when he sings.	11	Peter really likes to listen to ~ when he sings.
12	I ate five pieces of cake this afternoon. Now I feel terrible.	12	I ate five pieces of cake this afternoon. Now I feel ~ terrible.

Didaktische Hinweise

english, exercises, grammar, tandem, folientraining